HARBURGER TO ROOSEVELT MRONG'S EXCISE COMMISSIONER ON SUNDAY CLOSING.

te Save He's as Honest and Patriotte at the President of the Police Board, but He Advocates a Liberal Interpretation of the Excise Law and No Curtailment of the Privileges of the Poor Man. Excise Commissioner Julius Harburger called meeting of the Independent County Organization at its headquarters, 90 Avenue C, last sight, in order that he might deliver a specially repared speech on the enforcement, of the Excise law. The rooms of the organization were gowded. Commissioner Harburger began by ging that the Independent County Organizaion, in its campaign against mismanagement nd corruption, had been, as it now is, for lib-Eral excise laws and against all blue-law prootion. So had the majority of the roters hen they voted for the leader of the reform ement, in whose honesty, integrity, and fearsness they placed the greatest reliance. This co in Mayor Strong, said Mr. Harburger, ast not been misplaced. He had not deviated his expressed views, but in his appointent of various commissions a conflict had ad it devolved upon the speaker, Mr. arburger said, to take issue with the Police partment in the rigid, unwarranted, coercive forcement of the Sunday Excise law, and to fallacy and un-Americanism of the strictive policy pursued in the name of good

Suspicion That He Was Hilled and Robbed by Three of His Crew, Who Are Missing. WASHINGTON, Aug. 26, Minister Strobel, in a despatch to the Department of State from Santiago, July 13, transmits a communication from the Ministry of Marine of Chill, reporting particulars of the disappearance and sup-posed drowning of the captain of the American ressel Edward Kidder and three of the crew of the American vessel W. W. Crapo. The Minstry of Marine quotes a communication from the Marine Governor of Tarapaca, dated June 24, in which the latter says:

"The local Naval Officer of Junio, in a communication dated the 17th instant, reports as follows: 'I regret to communicate to you the sad disappearance of the Captain of the North American vessel Edward Kidder and of three of American vessel Edward Kidder and of three of the crew of the W. W. Crapo of the same nationality, both vessels being anchored in the bay of this port. On the lith instant the two captains of the American vessels in port. W. W. Hardy of the Crapo and Krneat Stegler of the E. Kidder, with three of his crew, went out fishing to the north of the harbor. On the southern side of the Punta de Pichalo, Capt. Stegler began to hunt seals, and succeeded in killing one of great size, which he intended to take to his vessel as a trophy of the excursion. At this point they met a boat carrying the captains of the English vessels loch Eck and Peterborough, who were returning from Pisagua, where they had gone on the same date. Capt. Hardy determined to return with the captains who came from Pisagua, and for that purpose went on board the other boat and left his companion engaged in hunting seals. From that moment absolutely nothing further has been heard of the fate of Capt. Stegler and the sailors, nor has the slightest trace of them been discovered. The seamen are the following: Otto De Vries Dutch, 26 years old; Lars Enksen, Norwegian, 25 years, and Edward Onopu, 19 years.

"I communicate to you the above for your information, and may add that the disappearance of the men referred to may have been the result either of a crime for the purpose of robbing the Captain of his money, or of some accident from the dynamite which they carried in the boat." the crew of the W. #### CHICAGO'S DRAINAGE CANAL.

Secretary Lamont to Decide Whether It Will Injure Navigation on the Lakes, WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 .- One of the most imupon to decide during his term of office is now pending before the War Department. It is the report of the Board of Engineers appointed to ex-amine and report upon the effect which the Chicago drainage canal, now in course of construction will have on the waters of the great lakes. Two distinct interests are arrayed against each other in the matter-the people of Chicago on one side and the navigation interests of the lakes on the other. Chicago wants the canal to drain the river of that name, which has for years pol-luted the city and Lake Michigan for many miles, rendering the water impure and threatening the health of the city. The shipping people contend that, in furnishing water to drain the city and carry off its sewage, the water level of the lakes will be lowered from six to tweive inches, but many eminent engineers disagree as to the exact limit the therace of the will reach. It is contended that six inches will be the limit.

The Lake Carriers' Association is making the greatest fight against the canal. It is said by these representatives that all the harbors on Lake Michigan and Lake Huron will be lowered, and that vessels with full loads, built for the present depth of harbors, will not be able to enter. It is claimed that Lake Huron will be affected because the Straits of Mackinaw are so broad and deep that the level of one lake is governed by the other. The Canadian engineers are also making a protest against the canal, and they will try and interest the Canadian Government in opposition to it. It is possible that the matter may be brought to the attention of the State Department.

Chicago is determined to have the canal, and work upon it has been in progress for some time. It is claimed that in case Secretary Lamont should decide that navigation interests will be injured to such an extent that the department cannot permit the construction of the canal the fight will be carried to Congress and a bill presented authorizing the work.

CHATTANOOGA MILITARY PARK. The Official Programme of the National

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.-Secretary of War Lamont to-day issued orders regarding the national dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park, which will take place on Sept. 19 and 20. The exercises on the first day will be at Snodgrass Hill, Chickamauga battlefield, when addresses will be delivered by Gen. John M. Palmer of Illinois and Gen. John B. Gordon of Georgia. On the 20th the exercises will take place in the city of Chattanooga, where the speakers will be Gen. Chas. H. Grosvepor of Ohio and Gen. Wm. B. Bate of Tennessee. The evenings of both days will be devoted to meetings of the veterans of the armies participating in the two battles.

The orders published to-day extend invitations to all the survivors of the armies that were engaged in the battles of Chickamauga and Chattanooga. In view of the large attendance which now seems assured the orders suggest that all who expect to be present make immediate arrangements for quarters.

Gen. J. S. Fullerton. Chairman of the Commission, is designated as Grand Marshal of the ceremonies. The band and one battalion of the Sixth Infantry, the band and one battalion of the Sixth Infantry, the band and one battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, the band and one battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, the band and one battalion of the Third Artillery, all under the command of the Lieutenant-Colonel of the Third Artillery, will encamn on the field of Chickamauga about Sept. 1, and remain until after the ceremonies. The troops will be employed in preserving order within the park and the protection of public property.

LIBRARIAN SPOFFORD EXPLAINS. He Says There Was No Shortage in His Accounts, but a Delay in Adjustment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.-In view of the constructions that have been placed upon Mr. Spofford's statement that he recently paid to the Treasury a sum of $22,400 on his accounts, the Librarian of Congress desires that the following explanation be made public: He says that the payment was what he had found to be the approximate balance between two accounts—the Treasury owing him for several months disbursements of library salaries and he owing the Treasury copyright fees, the ad-justment of which had been delayed by his enjustment of which had been delayed by his engrossment in pressing labors, preventing close scrutiny and prompt balancing of accounts.

During the time of this delay, running from October, 1893, he had continued to pay into the Treasury every two or three months copyright fees to the amount of over $55,000 in 1804 and 1895, exclusive of the $22,400 referred to. This was the plain state of the case, delayed adjustment of accounts, and not a shortage, as had been widely represented. He distinctly denied that the recent deposit was to make good any wrongful withholding of moneys due to the Government.

CEPHAS WRIGHT'S LIFE SPARED. The President Commutes the Death Sentence of a Choctaw Indian.

Washington, Aug. 26.—The President has commuted to imprisonment for life the sentence of death imposed on Cephas Wright, a Choctaw Indian, convicted of murder in the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Texas, who was to have gone to the gallows on Sept. 13 next. In endorsing the commutation Mr. Cleveland says: "This convict is a full-blooded Choctaw Indian, and at the time of the commission of his offence was thoroughly benighted, entirely ignorant of the English language, and had apparently no idea of the enormity of his crime in the light of civilized law. The Judge who sentenced him and the prosecuting officers who officiated upon his trial, as well as the successors of such officers, indicate a desire for the interposition of Executive clemency, and my examination of both the law and facts of the case, so far as they are presented to me, constrain me to concur in this official recommendation." # MINER GALENSKI MAY DIE.

Pittaburgh.

Pitreвungh, Aug. 26.-This morning a man supposed to be W. Galenski, a miner from Gas-tonville, was either jumped or was thrown from the second-story window of a house occupied by William Hoyer and his wife Maggie. Galenski fell upon the stone pavement and received in-juries that will probably cause his death.

It is alleged that Galenski desired Cora Steinberg, a foung woman in the resort to marry him, rhreatening that if she did not consent he would jump from the window. It is said that upon her refusal Galenaki made the fatal jump. Another story is that Galenaki became abusive and that Miss Steinberg summoned Mr. Boyer, with whose aid she threw Galenaki from the window.

Galenski was removed to the Homosopathic Hospital, where he lies in a dying condition. Hoyer, his wife Mangie, and a man named Charles Norton have been arrested. Cora Steinberg has not yet been found.

PUNISHING LIQUOR MEN.

ONE BANKBUPT SALOON KEEPER BEGS TO BE SENT TO PRISON.

Segan Business in May, Ruined in July-Got Pive Days-Thirty Days for a Man from Whom a Policeman Purchased a Steak and a Bottle of Beer for 15 Cents,

The unusual spectacle of a saloon keeper pleading to be imprisoned instead of fined for violating the Excise law was witnessed in the General Sessions yesterday morning. Samuel Lay, who formerly had a saloon at 338 Eas 117th street, made such a request of the Recorder. He said that if fined he would be unable to pay a fine, because he was bankrupt. He invested all his savings, $200, in a saloon on May 1. He was arrested on July 18, and days afterward a Brooklyn brewing company foreclosed a mortgage on his sa loon and dispossessed him, He said that he had a wife and three children and had determined not to go into the saloon business again. He declared he had not been violating the law. He lived back of his saloon, and a policeman forced his way into the saloo through the kitchen. The remnants of a glass of beer which his wife had treated a guest with were on a table, and on this evidence Lay was

The sentence was $75 or fifteen days.

John Sweeney, bartender at 275 Avenue A, was also fined $75 on a similar plea. George Frischen, watter at 135th street and Eighth avenue, said a mistake had been made in his name in the District Attorney's office. He was down on Friday, but was informed that his case was not on the calendar. He escaped with a fine of $50. Peter Caffrey, bartender at 30.7 Third avenue, said he was ill on Friday and could not appear. He was fined $50.

Martin Hammer, bartender in the Atalanta Casino, was fined $73, and William McLaughlin of 394 Tenth avenue $30. Herman Muhifeith of 311 East Seventy-sixth street, Thomas Reilly of 1,084 First avenue, and John Munss of 120th street and Third avenue were fined $75. Terence O'Brien, a bartender of 1,080 Park avenue, was fined $75, and could not pay, and was sent to the Tombs for fifteen days. The Grand Jury yesterday filed four indictments in excise cases, as follows: George Stegmuller of 443 West Thirty-eighth street; John Sulivan, 436 West Thirty-eighth street; And Matthew Foley, 153 East 129th street.

August Suchmiller, a restaurant keeper, of

August Suchmiller, a restaurant keeper, of 708 Columbus avenue, was tried before the Recorder on a charge of selling beer without a license. Policeman Conley of the West 100th street station testified that he got a bottle of beer with a steak on July 21, paying 15 cents for the lot. Suchmiller said that the beer which he gave the policeman was some which he had for his own use, and that hecharged nothing for it. The Recorder charged the jury that the fact for his own use, and that he charged nothing for it. The Recorder charged the jury that the fact that the bill was only 15 cents was not to be considered, as it was not proved what this paid for. The jury were not to consider the price of beer and meat, but it was fair to assume that the policeman paid for both. Prisoner's counsel asked the Recorder to charge that the regular price of steak was 15 cents, but this was refused. The jury convicted Suchmiller, and he was sentenced to thirty days in the city prison. Michael T. Joyce, a saloon keeper, of 557 Tenth avenue, was one of the jurymen in the case. He was also on the jury that convicted August Elder, the bartender who was sentenced to thirty days last week. He said he was of the same opinion as his fellow jurymen that the defendant was merely resorting to a subterfuge in fendant was merely resorting to a subterfuge in disposing of the beer. Joyce belongs to the Wine, Beer, and Liquor Dealers' Association.

KOEHLER NOT FOUND TET. The Police Think He Beliberately Aban

doned His Wife and Children. The attempt of the police to discover the whereabouts of Charles Koehler, whose wife and two small children are now at St. Barnabas House, has not yet succeeded, and the officers are coming to the opinion that Koehler deliberately deserted his family. Mrs. Koehler persists in believing that her husband is in the city, because he was without money to carry him out of town. She said yesterday, that she was of the opinion that her husband and his companion, Basson, were still looking for work and sleeping in the parks at night. Mrs. Koehler told yesterday of the manner in which she became separated from her husband. After reaching this city on Thursday they went about looking for rooms, but were unable to find any. When evening came they went to St.

aid; "You sit down here and rest. John and I will find a place for you to stay. We can spend the night anywhere."

Mrs. Koenier sat down on a door step and waited. After a time, she says, the woman who lived in the house came out and offered her something to cat, and, finally, when her husband failed to return, took her in for the night. On Friday Mrs. Koehler reported the disappearance of her husband; to the police, and a notification and description of Koehler was sent out to all the stations.

SCHOOP WAS PUSHED OVERBOARD.

Herman Schoop, a clerk in the grocery store of D. Niebuhrs, at 195 Jay street, Brooklyn was not accidentally drowned on Saturday afternoon at the foot of Bridge street, as was at first supposed. The police of the Fulton street station have learned that he was pushed off the pier by Frank Snyder, 14 years old, of 164 Pros-Schoop came from Bremen eighteen months ago. He was 17 years old. On Saturday his employer sent him to the Bridge street dock for a load of ice. Schoop became interested in the antics of some boys who were swimming at the end of the dock.

Young Snyder said to a companion, Patrick Haley of 257 Gold street, "Let's have some fun. Let's chuck the Dutchman overboard."

Snyder gave Schoop a push, which sent him into the water. Schoop was a good swimmer, but he did not reappear, and it is surmised that he struck against the pier in failing and was atunned. Some of the boys dived for him, but they did not find him.

The police found Haley, and he told the story related above to Justice Walsh. A warrant was issued for Snyder. He was found at his home. He tried to give Detectives Gray and Gillen the slip by jumping through a trap door and down one flight of stairs. Gillen captured the boy after a lively chass. Snyder was sent to jail by Justice Welsh pending a hearing on Friday. employer sent him to the Bridge street dock for

MUNNS NOT RECONCILED.

The Wife Wants Allmony Pending Appeal in Her Suit for Separation.

Lawrence Godkin, as referee, recently made a brought by Mrs. Fredericka F. Munn for a separation from her husband, Ernest M. Munn, upon the ground of abandonment. Mrs. Munn applied yesterday to Judge Beekman in Supreme Court, Chambers, to compel her husband to pay her $30 a week and a counsel fee of $600 pending an appeal to the General Term.

She is a cousin of President Andrew V. V. She is a cousin of President Andrew V. V. Raymond of Union College, and Judge John A. Miller of Newark is her brother-in-law. She was married in Newark on June 5, 1889. Her domestic relations were pleasant until she discovered that her husband was receiving affectionate letters from a woman hamed Newmann. He went to Europe about a year ago, leaving his wife it the country, promising to provide a home for her in Brooklyn upon his return. When he returned, however, he sent his wife a letter, in which he told her that he would not live with her any longer. He changed his mind later, and wrote several letters requesting her to live with him in Hrooklyn, where he had provided a home for her. She, in the mean time, had taken up her residence in this city, and refused to five with her husband. In her suit she accused him of having abandoned her. He denied the abaudonment.

Document Purporting to Be His Last Will Received by the Register of Wills, WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 .- What purports to be the last will of the late Gen. Joseph Holt of Kentucky, who died over a year ago, was made public to-day. In the mail delivered to the of-fice of the Register of Wills on Saturday were two or three envelopes, which were not opened until this morning by Col. Wright, the Register. Among them was one addressed in crude letters, printed in ink, which when opened was found to contain a half sheet of foolscap paper, the left edge of which was burned, but not enough to make the writing illegible. Several enough to make the writing flegible. Several amail holes were burned in the sides and centre of the sheet, but scarcely a word was-liminated. The text of the document was as follows:

I do hereby devise and bequeath all my property, both personal and real, to Lizzie Hynes, cousin of my first wife, and to Josephine Holt Throckmorton, who is my gedehild, and to their heirs and assigns for ever. I do hereby direct that at my death all of my property be divided equally between them.

Lizzie Hynes is to inherit hers at my death, Josephine at the age of 21. Her father, Major Charles R. Throckmorton, will hold her share in trust. I appoint Mr. Luke Devilin of Washington executor. Signed and scaled in the breesence of these witnesses at Washington, Feb. 7, 1873.

Witnesses: Ellen B. E. Sherman, U. S. Grant, W. T. Sherman.

Not one word of explanation accompanied the will, and the officials of the localists's office are at a loss to account for its appearance. No one who is familiar with the handwriting of Gen. Holt and with the signatures of Grant and Sherman doubt the authenticity of the document.

Gen. Holt was supposed to have died intestate, and proceedings under that supposition were begin a year ago. On the petition of Washington D. Holt, William G. Sterrett, and John W. Holt, next of kin, an administrator was appointed, and he filed an inventory of the personal estate on Oct. 2, 1894, which footed up $130,665. About $50,000 worth of realty in this city also belongs to the estate.

Several days subsequent to the filing of the inventory, some of the heirs submitted to the Register of Wills an instrument purporting to be the will of Gen. Holt, and dated April 14, 1848. Upon the outside of the scaled wrapper, however, in the testator's own handwriting, were the words:

The administrator was therefore directed to proceed as though no will had been offered or written. There was accordingly a distribution of $1,000 made at that time among the next of kin. This is the only distribution of funds that has been made, and the administrator will probably be directed to stay proceedings until something further is heard from the unknown senders of the will.

MRS. KEARNEY'S WILL NO WILL. Not a Disposing Provision in It-The Estate

The will of Mrs. Lucia L. Kearney, widow of Philip R. Kearney, who was formerly President of the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, 52 Wall street, was filed in the Surrogate's office yesterday morning by Lawyer Reuben L. Maynard of 32 Liberty street. Mrs. Kearney died on Aug. 21, but the will was dated March 1, 1889. It covers but a single sheet of paper and reads as follows: of paper and reads as follows:

I. Lucia L. Keariney of the city of New York, being of sound and disposing united and of disposing memory and understanding, do make, publish, and declare this my last win and testament, hereby revoking all hereinafter named, to pay my just debts and funeral expenses.

Second—I nominate, constitute, and appoint my daughters. Anna L. Stephens and Harriet T. Schenck, to be the executors of this my will, and I direct that neither of them shall be required to give any bond or security.

In winess whereof I have hereinto set my hand and seal this first day of March, eighteen hundred and eighty nine. eighty nine.

The witnesses to the will were Joseph R. Kearsen, ney, since deceased, and Lawyer Pierre W. Wildey of 31 Pine street. The peculiarity about the will is that it makes no provision for the distribution of Mrs. Kearney's estate of about 10,000, so that the first intestate of about half intestate.

Philip R. Kearney left an estate of about half a million, giving his wife a life interest, the principal to go to the two children at her death. Mrs. Kearney's estate will also be divided equally between Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Mrs. Kearney's estate will also be divided equally between Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Schenek.
Mrs. Kearney was 87 years old. Her residence was 33 Madison street, but at the time of her death she was living with her daughter, Mrs. Schenek, at Rye.

Mr. O'Brien is also to have the use of Mr. Chedsay's office and law library, and to conduct the business for five years. If, after five years, the executors of the will, who are Samuel B. Goodale and Henry W. Norton of this city, and Henry C. Newton of New Haven, consider that Mr. O'Brien has managed the business properly and honestly, the business is to become Mr. O'Brien's absolutely. Mr. O'Brien is a lawyer, and lives at 315 Belford avenue, Hrooklyn.

Mr. Chedsey died on Aug. 20, in his 74th year. His law office was at 8 City Hall place.

Will of August Rutten Found,

The will of August Rutten, a member of the Stock Exchange, who died last week, has been found in the private safe of the New York Stock Exchange Building Company, Mr. Rut-Stock Exchange Building Company. Mr. Rütten gives to his sister Franzisha Schuster, the widow of Wilhelm Schuster, his house at 12 Traunnsstrasse, Frankfort-on-the-Main, on condition that she shall assume the payment of the mortgage on the property. His sister is also to have one-eighth of the residue of his personal property, which is to be held in trust for her by his friend William B. Honn. To his wife, Helene Rütten, the testator gives all the rest of his personal property and all his real estate.

Anthrax Prevalent Among Cattle,

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 26. From reports re-cently received by the State Board of Health and the Department of Agriculture it appears that anthrax, a cattle disease much feared by the farmers, has been more prevalent in certain parts of the State in the past two months than parts of the State in the past two months than in five years previously. Veterinarian Quigley, who has charge of the cases for the State Department of Agriculture, attributes the increase to climatic influences. The extensive dairy section about Peposit. Delaware county, has been attried upsomewhat by several cases arising there, and herds have also been affected by the disease in Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Otsego, Wyoming, and Sullivan counties. In Chautauqua a horse is reported to have died with it. Anthrax can be communicated to man or woman, and in such a case is very deadly. The cases just now, though showing an increase, are not reported to be sufficiently numerous to cause alarm.

BAD MILK MEANS PRISON. SEVERE SENTENCES FOR THOSE

CAUGHT SELLING IT. I Didn't Know the Milk Was Skimmed" is No Excuse Before Justice Jerome— Ten Days in the City Prison and 250 Fine, Two milk dealers received in Special Sessions yesterday sentences of a $50 fine and ten days' imprisonment, instead of the $25 fine usually imposed. Samuel Pakulsky, a retail dealer at 49 Madison street, pleaded guilty. He said that he had never been arrested before, although he had been in the business for seven years. Dr. Lederle said the milk Pakulsky sold was 7 per cent. water, and 38 per cent. skim milk. He sold the stuff at $1.50 a can, forty quarts in the can. didn't know the milk was skimmed," said Pakulsky. 'I learned to tell skimmed milk in one week,' said Justice Jerome, "and you've been seven years in the business. That excuse won't go. Buy a lactometer if you haven't got one. Your sentence is $50 fine and ten days in the City Dr. Lederle said that he found that the milk of the next prisoner, Joseph Altman of 1,225 Washington avenue, was 17 per cent. water and 21 per cent. skim milk. Altman pleaded rullty, adding "I sold the milk as I bought and 21 per cent. skim milk. Altman pleaded guilty, adding "I sold the milk as I bought it."

"Oh. no, you didn't," said Justice Jerome.

"The man who sold you the milk is known to the Coart as well as the sind of milk he sold. I think you added 8 or 9 per cent, water as soon as you got the milk and took good care that it was well skimmed. Fined $50 and ten days in the City Prison." A large number of milk cases will come up on Sept. 11.

President Wilson of the Health Board said last evening that the action of the Special Sessions Justices would do more to stoo the adulteration of milk than anything that had ever been done in this city. He said he had had an interview with Mayor Strong in relation to increasing the force of sanitary inspectors in milk cases. There are only five employed now, and there are 7.000 places in the city where milk is sold and twenty wholesale supply depois. The five inspectors could only work between 1 o'clock and bo'clock in the morning. The city supply of milk is 822,000 quarts a day. President Wilson was led to ask for an increase in the force of inspectors through Chemist Martin, who said in a report that typhold lever diphtheris, and kindred diseases were disseminated by the use of milk with disease-bearing water added. An epidemic of typhold lever near stamford was traced to an unwholesome milk supply. Chemist Martin said that of all the articles of food offered for sale which required the supervision of the health authorities milk was the most important. It was the food of the infant and the sick, and, while it was easy to adulterate it, it was difficult to detect impure milk. It is different from other foods, for their impurities are apparent to the average consumer.

President Wilson said that Mayor Strong President Wilson said that mayor Strong are apparent to the average consumer.

President Wilson said that Mayor Strong favored increasing the staff of inspectors and would vote for an appropriation of $2,000 at the meeting of the Beard of Estimate and Apportionment to-morrow. The Health Beard will meet to-day and formally decide to increase the staff.

BARTHOLDI RIVERSIDE CRECHE. Its Work for Sick Bables This Summer Contributions Needed,

The Bartholdi Crèche at the East River margin of Handall's Island is a place to which a mother can take her sick baby at a moment's notice at any hour of the day and reach promptly bracing air and cool shade. The testimonies to its usefulness in preventing infantile illness and saving infant life are abundant, and because of its cas) access, and of the general closing of all other fresh air charitable resorts, it is kept open through the sultry days of September and until near the close of that month. As its value has become better known to the poor through has become better known to the poor through the dispensaries and missions, its beneficiaries have greatly increased. Last summer the visits of children and mothers numbered 4,300, while aiready this season up to Saturday evening 7,408 have sought and received its benefits. With a trained nurse and experienced helpers in constant attendance, pure milk and simple food at hand, and cots and hammocks supplied, the benefits are invaluable to the droughing little ones from the hot and stifling air of the tene-ment-house districts.

MAN HUNT ACROSS THE MEADOWS.

nau on the town dock last night, just what for pobody knows. The prisoner tried to break away, and Matthews called for assistance. Roundsman Bergen and two other officers responded. The four surrounded the prisoner, and he was hustled into one of the closed trolley and he was hustied into one of the closed trolley cars. Three of the policemen guarded the rear of the car until the man had been handcuffed by Roundsman Rergen.

When the car started toward the Canarsie village police station the prisoner rounded to the front platform, jumped off, and started on a run across the meadows. The car was stopped, and the passengers followed the police in a chase after the escaping man.

Several more policemen joined in the race, and a crowd of several hundred men and women from the hotels followed suit, and rushed madly over the meadow land. The man ran until a pend of water prevented him from going further. Then he was captured by the roundsman and brought back to the car.

At the police station the police refused to give the name of the prisoner and also declined to say what crime he was charged with.

GAS EXPLODED IN THE VAULT. Bank Clerk Leufbeck Painfully Burned, but

Augustus Lembeck, a clerk in the Third National Bank at Pavonia avenue and Erie street, Jersey City, was painfully injured yesterday morning by an explosion of gas in the bank vault. Lembeck is a son of Henry Lembeck, a vealthy brower and Vice-President of the bank He is 21 years old. It is a part of his duty to help bring the books

It is a part of his duty to help bring the books out of the vault every morning. When he opened the door of the vault yesterday there was a strong odor of gas. He stepped back and waited for a few moments. Then thinking it was safe, he entered the vault and struck a match to light the gas. A loud explosion followed, startling every body in the building and causing a crowd to gather in the street. A flash of flame followed the explosion, burning Mr. Lembeck's face, hands, and eyebrows. Dr. Hoffman dressed his wounds and he was taken to his home, in Columbia place.

The gas escaped from a leaky pipe. The books and currency in the vault were not damaged.

HOBOKEN'S GERMAN FESTIVAL. Lots of Fun at the Pinttdeutsche Verein Festival at Union Hill.

The Union Hill Schuetzen Park was again crowded yesterday with fun-loving Germans gathered there to participate in the second day's programme of the big festival of the Plattdeutsche Verein. There was a great variety of attractions of the Concy Island type. In a reattractions of the Concy Island type. In a remote corner of the park was a "couchecouchee" show. The "barker," who stood on a chair outside the booth, announced that:

"This dance was suppressed in Concy Island last week, gentlemen, but we are able to present it here under the more liberal laws of the State of New Jersey, and through the courtesy of the Suitan of Turkey."

The programme yesterday consisted of a concert, a reception to the visiting societies, who were addressed by Senator W. D. Daly, and various specialty entertainments. At 5 o'clock there was a grand parade, followed by a pantomme. "Love in all corners." In the evening there was an international ballet, followed by a display of fireworks.
